- 14:20-14:50 Keynote by Mina Dennert: SHARING HOPE AND ACTIVATING ALLIES
Mina Dennert is a Swedish journalist, social media expert and founder of the I Am Here International network, which works to counter disinformation to defend human rights and our freedom of speech. She especially works on supporting journalists, politicians and discriminated communities against online hate and disinformation campaigns that limit their freedom of speech and pushes them to self-censorship. Her movement currently comprises more than 150,000 people worldwide. In this keynote speech, Mina will talk about what we can do individually and collectively, when we, or the people we follow online, are faced with conspiracy theories and hate speech. Mina will explore the importance of value-based communication, partnerships, activating allies and building strong communities in the digital world.
